

SOUR GRAPES

There was one fox. In search of prey, he was roaming for a long time

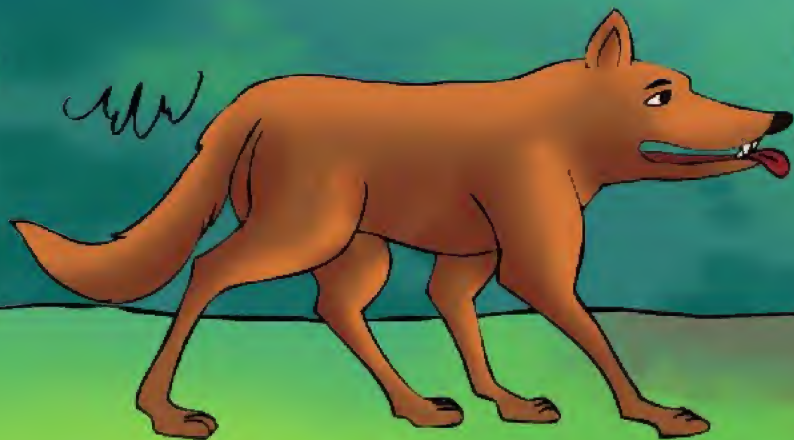

He became very tired and was extremely hungry. But he did not find anything to eat

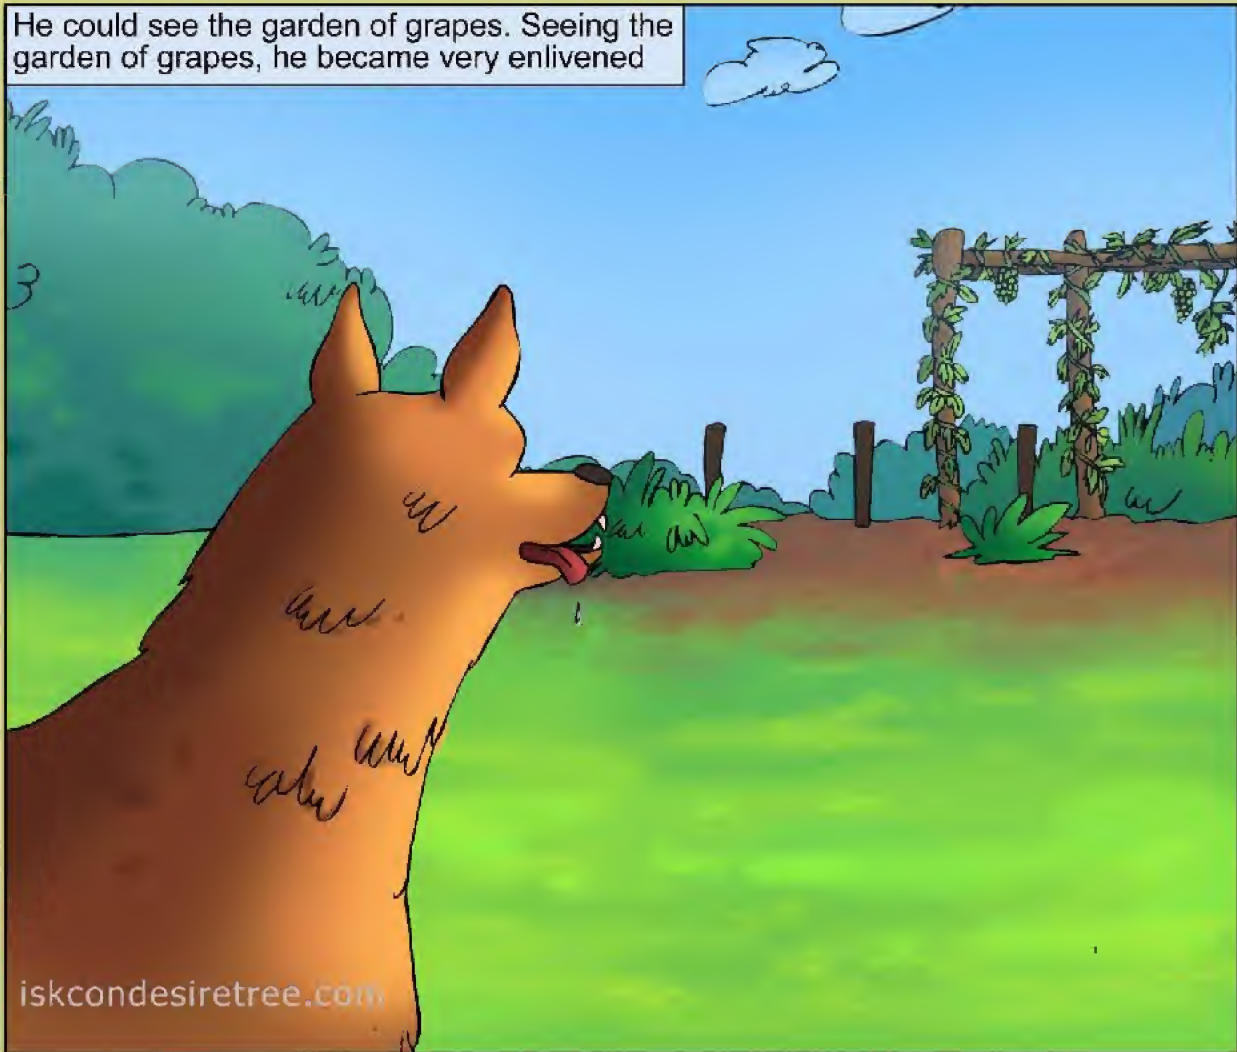

At that time, nice breeze began to blow. He smelled something

Oh, this is the smell of very very sweet grapes

He went towards the direction of that smell of grapes. He walked fast

He could see the garden of grapes. Seeing the garden of grapes, he became very enlivened

He took long steps and reached the garden. He looked up. Many grapes were hanging. The ripe greenish yellow grapes were shining in the early morning. Seeing those grapes his mouth watered

He stood with his hind legs and raised his fore legs.
But he could not reach the bunches of grapes

Then he jumped, still he could not reach

The fox kept looking at the grapes for some time

Then he stood at a place where the grapes were closer to him. He opened his mouth and with full force jumped high and he reach very near to it

If I jump with more force, then the sweet grapes will definately reach my mouth

He jumped and jumped many times but not even one sweet grape reached his mouth

Finally, he was irritated

These grapes are sour. Who will eat such sour grapes? By eating these grapes, my teeth also will turn sour

At last, the fatigued fox quietly walked away

MORAL :

Ninety-nine percent of the failures come from people who have the habit of making excuses